

Battle rages for Yemen's lifeline port

Yemeni pro-government fighters supported by a Saudi-led coalition have seized the international airport in the vital port city of Hodeida after fierce battles with Iranian-backed Houthi rebels

➔ Pro-government advance

Hodeida port

Main lifeline for food and humanitarian supplies to Yemen, where 22 million people are dependent on aid, and 8.4 million are facing starvation

Sanaa Road

Warplanes from Saudi-led coalition have bombed main route linking Hodeida with capital, Sanaa, to block Houthi reinforcements

Great Mosque

Castle

Fishing port

Saudi-led naval blockade

Hodeida International Airport

UAE and Yemeni government troops have stormed airport compound, according to Yemeni military sources

RED SEA

Houthi-held territory

SAUDI ARABIA

YEMEN

Sanaa

Hodeida

Aden

Gulf of Aden

300km
200 miles

3km
2 miles