

Strait of Hormuz – key oil waterway

The Strait of Hormuz is one of the world's most crucial oil transport routes, with a third of global oil tanker traffic – carrying 18.5 million barrels of crude and condensate – passing through the strait every day

