

Scores killed in Indonesia quake

A powerful earthquake struck the Indonesian island of Lombok, killing over 90 people and prompting an exodus of tourists rattled by the second powerful quake in a week

