

Fears of disease in Kerala flood camps

Although the monsoon rains in India's flood-stricken state of Kerala have eased, 200,000 people in relief camps now face the risk of disease

