

Tensions soar as Venezuelans flee chaos

Thousands of Venezuelans are continuing to flee their country's economic and humanitarian crisis, and some migrants are facing increasing hostility from their South American neighbours

Venezuelans sheltering in neighbouring countries

Government figures, May-June 2018

Colombia*
1,100,000

Peru
280,000

Ecuador
99,000

Roraima State (Brazil)
57,000

*Includes Colombian returnees from Venezuela