

Cholera cases soar in Yemen's Hodeidah

Suspected cholera cases have almost tripled in Yemen's coastal Hodeidah region since fighting escalated in early summer, according to international aid group Save the Children

CHOLERA ATTACK RATE (%) POPULATION

By district (April to July 2018)

Hodeidah governorate

SAUDI ARABIA

Sanaa

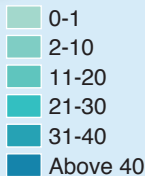

Y E M E N

Al Mukalla

Aden

Gulf of Aden

Red Sea

160km

100 miles

Hodeidah: Spike in cholera follows increased fighting between Saudi-led pro-government alliance and Houthi rebels. July air raids damaged water and sanitation facilities serving city

Suspected cholera cases in Hodeidah governorate

1,342

497

732

June

July

August

Thirty percent of all suspected cholera cases in Yemen are children under five years old, according to WHO