

Today in History

November 1, 1993

▲ Following a number of national referendums the Maastricht Treaty came into effect, creating a new European Union and paving the way for the euro

830: Pope Gregory IV inaugurated the feast of All Saints, or All Hallows

1928: A Graf Zeppelin travelled a record distance for an airship of 6,384km

1988: Batman's sidekick, Robin, was killed off by The Joker in edition 428 of DC Comics after a readers' poll showed he was no longer popular

2013: Ousted Egyptian president Mohammed Morsi made his first appearance in court on charges of inciting the murder of protesters