

Today in History

November 2, 1898

▲ Cheerleading originated when a student at the University of Minnesota directed the crowd to chant in support of the university football team

1978: Two Soviet cosmonauts returned to earth from the Salyut 6 space station after a record 39 days, 14 hours in space

1988: A U.S. student released the first significant computer “worm”, clogging thousands of computers

2008: Lewis Hamilton, 23, became the youngest, and first black Formula One World Champion

2010: Greece suspended international mail services for 48 hours after parcel bombs exploded at three embassies