

Today in History

November 13, 2015

▲ Russia was suspended from all international athletics competition after an independent report alleged that “state-sponsored doping” had taken place for years

1998: The IMF announced a $41bn aid package to rescue Brazil’s ailing economy

2001: The Afghan capital Kabul fell to Northern Alliance forces after the Taliban abandoned the city

2008: Investors dumped Russian assets over fears that the country’s economy was in crisis

2008: Austrian Josef Fritzl was charged over the 24-year incarceration of his daughter in the cellar of his home