

Election setback for Modi in three key states

India's ruling party has suffered a setback in elections to five state assemblies, handing Prime Minister Narendra Modi his biggest loss since taking office in 2014, and just months before national elections

Narendra Modi's BJP lost three state elections in its Hindu stronghold – Chhattisgarh, Madhya Pradesh and Rajasthan – to main opposition Congress party

Key to parties

- Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP)
- Indian National Congress
- Telangana Rashtra Samithi
- Mizo National Front
- Others

RULING PARTIES BEFORE ELECTION

ELECTION RESULTS

Assembly seats won

*Voting held for 199 seats (one seat postponed)