

North Korea's diplomatic encounters

U.S. President Donald Trump and North Korean leader Kim Jong-un are to hold their second summit, raising hopes that the two sides can break their stalemate over denuclearisation of the Korean peninsula

Mar 25-28, 2018

Kim Jong-un makes official state visit to Beijing to meet Chinese President Xi Jinping.

First trip outside of North Korea since taking power in 2011

Apr 27

Kim becomes first North Korean leader to enter South when he meets South Korean President Moon Jae-in for talks at Demilitarized Zone (DMZ)

May 7-8

Kim meets President Xi in coastal Chinese city of Dalian, amid flurry of diplomacy as Kim prepares for summit with U.S. President Donald Trump

Jun 10-12

Kim Jong-un and President Trump hold historic meeting in Singapore. Leaders pledge to work towards denuclearization of Korean peninsula

Jun 19-20

Kim travels to Beijing to brief President Xi on Singapore summit. Xi urges Washington and Pyongyang to implement agreement struck in Singapore

Jan 7-10, 2019

Kim and President Xi meet for fourth time to coordinate strategies ahead of second Kim-Trump summit, to be held in Vietnam from Feb 27-28