

Australia flooding worsens

"Once-in-a-century" flooding affecting parts of Queensland is set to worsen amid warnings of more heavy rain in the area

Townsville: Over 1,100 people evacuated and up to 20,000 homes at risk after city authorities open dam gates following days of record rainfall that fills reservoirs to overflowing

