

Today in History

March 26, 1979

▲ President Anwar Sadat of Egypt and Israeli Premier Menachem Begin signed a peace treaty at the White House, ending 30 years of war between their two countries

1898: The Sabi Game Reserve, the world's first dedicated wild life park, was designated in South Africa

1989: The Communists were defeated in parliamentary elections in the Soviet Union

1999: The European Union backed the "unqualified" right of Palestinians to have their own independent state

2017: Carrie Lam was elected Chief Executive of Hong Kong, its first female leader