

Today in History

April 3, 1999

▲ Eight cruise missiles destroyed the Yugoslav and Serb Interior Ministry buildings in Belgrade as NATO warplanes made their first attack on the Serbian capital

1949: An armistice signed between Israel and its neighbours officially ended the 1948 Arab-Israeli war

2009: Veteran politician Najib Abdul Razak became Malaysia's sixth Prime Minister

2014: The EU launched the biggest ever civil Earth-observation programme from French Guiana

2016: The leaked "Panama Papers" revealed how some of the super-rich use offshore tax havens