

Boeing faces massive MAX bill

The Boeing 737 MAX has been a commercial triumph with more than 5,000 cumulative orders, but with the entire fleet now grounded Boeing must reimburse carriers scrambling to find replacement aircraft

Boeing 737 MAX orders: 5,012 (through February 2019)

Delivered (grounded)

Unfilled orders

376

4,636

Revenue (2018): $101bn

Profit: $10.6bn

Market value (Mar 19) $210.1bn

737 MAX unit cost: $121.6m

Current 737 output: 52 per month

Airlines with most MAX aircraft

Southwest Airlines 34

American Airlines 25

Air Canada 24

China Southern 24

Norwegian Air 18

Air China 16

$94m

Monthly cost of reimbursing airlines to replace grounded planes

$500m
Cost of software updates
(3-6 months)