

Today in History

April 10, 2017

▲ Australia said two thirds of the Great Barrier Reef were affected by severe coral bleaching, as rising ocean temperatures caused the coral to die off

1849: The safety pin was patented in the U.S. by Walter Hunt of New York. He later sold the rights for $250

1919: Revolutionary leader Emiliano Zapata was killed in Mexico

1972: Tombs dating from 120-140 BC were accidentally discovered during construction work in Shandong, China

2014: An internet security scare resulted after a coding error dubbed Heartbleed was discovered in encryption software