

Contenders to succeed Theresa May

Boris Johnson, 54:
Former foreign secretary quit government in protest at May's handling of Brexit negotiations

Dominic Raab, 45:
Former Brexit minister quit May's government in protest at May's draft exit agreement

Sajid Javid, 49:
Eurosceptic home secretary has made no secret about wanting May's job

Jeremy Hunt, 52:
Foreign secretary has urged Tories to unite against European Union

Michael Gove, 51:
Environment secretary and leading Brexiteer ran for party leadership in 2016

David Davis, 70:
Former Brexit secretary resigned in protest over May's Chequers deal

Amber Rudd, 55: Work and Pensions Secretary could win support from pro-EU Tories

Jacob Rees-Mogg, 49:
Head of eurosceptic European Research Group of MPs

Andrea Leadsom, 55:
Pro-Brexit campaigner and Leader of House of Commons