

Today in History

May 28, 2004

▲ The last span of the Millau viaduct in southern France, the world's highest road bridge, was completed. It soars 270m above the River Tarn

1934: The Dionne sisters, the first surviving set of quintuplets, were born in Ontario, Canada

1959: Two monkeys became the first animals to return successfully to Earth after travelling into space

1999: Leonardo da Vinci's Last Supper went on public display in Milan for the first time in 20 years

2014: Maya Angelou, one of the leading U.S. literary figures of the last 50 years, died aged 86