

MAY 20 – JUN 9

Roland Garros 2019: Men's preview

Novak Djokovic

Victory in Paris for World No.1 will match his 2016 feat of holding all four Grand Slam titles at once

Rafael Nadal

Aiming for 12th Roland Garros crown – recent triumph in Rome will boost morale after title drought

Roger Federer

37-year-old back at Roland Garros for first time since 2015 – sole title here came in 2009

Dominic Thiem

2018 finalist seeking maiden major. Claimed first Masters title at Indian Wells, beating Federer

PLAYER RECORD*	Djokovic	Nadal	Federer	Thiem
2019 win-loss	23-5	25-5	22-3	17-8
2019 titles	2	1	2	2
Career titles (total)	74	81	101	13
Career titles (clay)	14	58	11	9
Grand Slams	15	17	20	0

CLAY COURT CONCERN: After three successive semi-final defeats on his beloved red dirt, victory at Italian Open gave Nadal first clay court title of season – and first title on any surface since August 2018

Monte-Carlo Masters	Semi-final	Madrid Open	Semi-final
Lost to Fabio Fognini	4-6, 2-6	Lost to Stefanos Tsitsipas	4-6, 6-2, 3-6
Barcelona Open	Semi-final	Italian Open	Winner
Lost to Dominic Thiem	4-6, 4-6	Beat Novak Djokovic	6-0, 4-6, 6-1