

Today in History

July 22, 1934

▲ John Dillinger, U.S. bank robber identified as Public Enemy No. 1, was shot dead by FBI agents in Chicago after more than a year on the run

1802: Emperor Gia Long conquered Hanoi and unified Vietnam after centuries of feudal warfare

1904: U.S. carriage builder Studebaker produced their first petrol-powered motorcar

1992: Colombian drug lord Pablo Escobar escaped from custody while being moved to a higher-security jail

2003: Saddam Hussein's feared sons, Uday and Qusay, died in a shootout with U.S. troops in Mosul