

Today in History

July 29, 2018

▲ Welsh cyclist Geraint Thomas won the Tour de France, giving Britain's Team Sky a sixth victory in seven years in cycling's most prestigious race

1879: America's first asphalt pavement was laid in New Jersey

1949: The first regular televised weather forecast was broadcast by the BBC

1994: A U.S. anti-abortion protester shot dead two people, including a doctor, outside an abortion clinic in Florida

1999: U.S. President Bill Clinton was fined for lying about his relationship with Monica Lewinsky in the Paula Jones sexual harassment case