

Planemakers vie for $15bn India jet deal

India is seeking to boost the capability of its armed forces with the purchase of 114 advanced fighter jets, as six aircraft manufacturers compete for the deal – valued at more than $15 billion

DASSAULT RAFALE

French aircraft maker supplying 36 fighters to India in separate deal, as well as bidding for 114-jet order

At least 85 percent of new fighter jet to be built in India

BOEING F/A-18E/F SUPER HORNET

Boeing partnering with Hindustan Aeronautics Limited (HAL) and Mahindra Defence Systems

EUROFIGHTER TYPHOON

EADS (now Airbus Group) has invited India to become fifth Eurofighter partner

LOCKHEED MARTIN F-21

LOCKHEED MARTIN

Lockheed Martin exclusively offering F-16 rebrand in partnership with TATA Group

MIKOYAN MIG-35 "FULCRUM-F"

Russian aircraft production facility already exists in India – HAL builds Su-30MKI jets under licence

SAAB GRIPEN E/F

SAAB

Sweden's Saab teaming with billionaire Gautam Adani to offer single-engined jet