

India is home to 2,967 tigers

The total number of tigers in India stands at 2,967, or more than 70 percent of the wild tigers that inhabit the world, according to the All India Tiger Estimation Report for 2018

India's tigers (states with highest populations)

2010: India and 12 other countries sign agreement to double tiger numbers by 2022

2,967

1,411

1,706

2,226

2006

2010

2014

2018

Uttarakhand 442

Madhya Pradesh 526

Maharashtra 312

Karnataka 524

Kerala 190

Tamil Nadu 264

Uttar Pradesh 173

Assam 190

Tiger populations*

Russia	433
Indonesia	371
Malaysia	250
Nepal	198
Thailand	189
Bangladesh	106
Bhutan	103
Myanmar	85
Rest of world	14

*Global populations 2016, Myanmar 2010

Source: All India Tiger Estimation Report

Picture: Getty Images

© GRAPHIC NEWS