

Millions facing food crisis in Zimbabwe

Zimbabwe's drought has affected harvests and food prices have risen sharply

The UN food agency has launched a $331 million appeal for aid donations to help feed millions of people as Zimbabwe battles the effects of drought, a cyclone and an economic crisis

POPULATION IN NEED OF FOOD AID (Millions)

FOOD INSECURITY PHASE (Jul-Sep 2019)

Minimal (light green) Stressed (yellow) Crisis (orange)

Kariba hydro plant

Power cuts across country triggered by low water levels

