

A large crowd of migrants is walking on a paved road, surrounded by trees. In the foreground, several people are carrying a large flag that is half Honduran (blue and white with five stars) and half Mexican (green, white, and red with the national coat of arms). The migrants are dressed in casual clothing like t-shirts, jeans, and hats.

Today in History

October 12, 2018

▲ An ever-growing migrant caravan set out from Honduras with hopes of reaching the U.S. By year end over 7,000 migrants were camped on the Mexico-U.S. border

1984: An IRA bomb exploded at a hotel in Brighton, England, during the annual Conservative Party conference

1999: Pakistan's prime minister Nawaz Sharif was ousted in a military coup headed by General Pervez Musharraf

2009: A group of fossils found in China was confirmed as the biggest of its kind in the world

2014: President Evo Morales won a third consecutive term as President of Bolivia