

Heads of state carbon footprints revealed

Analysis of CO<sub>2</sub> emissions from 140 flights to foreign countries by seven G20 heads of state in 2018, found Japanese Prime Minister Shinzō Abe was the biggest climate offender

2018 DISTANCES FLOWN TO FOREIGN COUNTRIES (km)

Abe	206,620
Trump	130,988
Macron	205,526
Merkel	171,238
Conte	115,896
Trudeau	167,355
May	113,587

2018 AIR TRAVEL CO<sub>2</sub> EMISSIONS (tonnes)

Shinzō Abe (Japan)
BOEING 747-400

Donald Trump (U.S.)
BOEING 747-200B

Emmanuel Macron (France)
AIRBUS A330-200

Angela Merkel (Germany)
AIRBUS A340-300

Giuseppe Conte (Italy)
AIRBUS A340-500

Justin Trudeau (Canada)
BOEING 737-800

Theresa May (UK)
BRITISH AEROSPACE
BAE146

May and Trudeau's aircraft produced least emissions at 20kg of CO<sub>2</sub> per km. Trump's was worst with 88kg

Note:
Shinzō Abe's
Boeing 747 was replaced in 2019
with Boeing 777-300ER