

Barty aiming for year-end No.1 spot at WTA Finals

A strong display in Shenzhen could see Ashleigh Barty crowned as the world's best female tennis player at the WTA Finals. The Roland Garros champion – appearing at the showpiece for the first time – would become the first Australian woman to top the year-end rankings

WTA FINALS: Oct 27-Nov 3

2019 record

Win

Loss

Round robin: Players drawn into two groups of four.

Top two players in each group advance to semi-finals

Titles won

Ashleigh Barty	AUS	52	11	Miami, Roland Garros, Birmingham
Karolina Pliskova	CZE	50	15	Brisbane, Rome, Eastbourne, Zhengzhou
Naomi Osaka	JPN	39	11	Australian Open, Osaka, Beijing
Simona Halep	ROM	42	15	Wimbledon
Bianca Andreescu	CAN	48	5	Indian Wells, Toronto, U.S. Open
Petra Kvitova	CZE	37	13	Sydney, Stuttgart
Belinda Bencic	SUI	48	20	Dubai, Moscow
Elina Svitolina	UKR	35	21	Semi-final: Wimbledon, U.S. Open

RECENT WINNERS: Chinese city of Shenzhen takes over hosting duties at most prestigious event on WTA calendar from 2019-28

2018	Elina Svitolina	UKR	bt	Sloane Stephens	USA	3-6, 6-2, 6-2
2017	Caroline Wozniacki	DEN		Venus Williams	USA	6-4, 6-4
2016	Dominika Cibulkova	SVK		Angelique Kerber	GER	6-3, 6-4
2015	Agnieszka Radwanska	POL		Petra Kvitova	CZE	6-2, 4-6, 6-3
2014	Serena Williams	USA		Simona Halep	ROM	6-3, 6-0