

Spain braced for more unrest in Catalonia

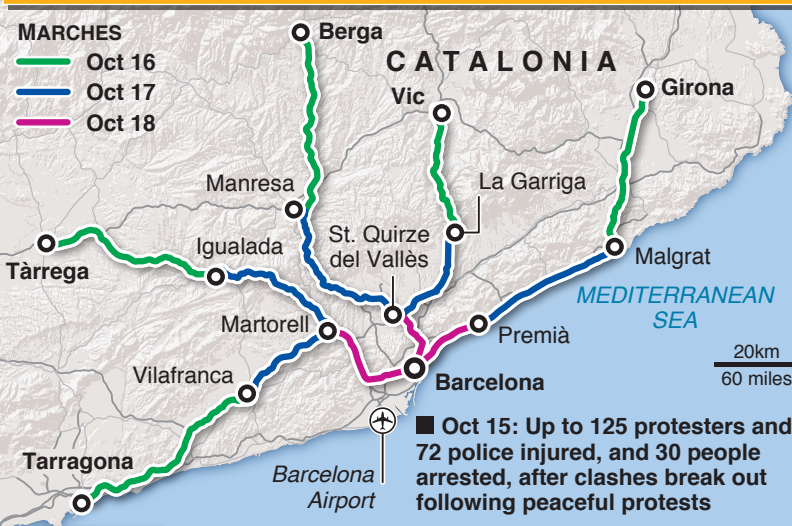

Spanish authorities are bracing for further unrest after demonstrations over the jailing of nine separatist leaders erupted into violent clashes in a number of cities across Catalonia

Protesters staging marches from five Catalan cities to Barcelona ahead of major demonstration and general strike on Oct 18

MARCHES

- Oct 16
- Oct 17
- Oct 18

■ Oct 15: Up to 125 protesters and 72 police injured, and 30 people arrested, after clashes break out following peaceful protests

■ Oct 14: Nine separatist leaders jailed for 9-13 years over failed 2017 independence bid. Over 100 flights cancelled as thousands of protesters, reportedly using Tsunami Democràtic app, attempt to shut down airport

■ Separatists say protests will continue in run-up to fresh general election on Nov 10

TSUNAMI D