

Today in History

November 4, 1979

▲ Iranian supporters of Ayatollah Khomeini's Islamic Revolution seized the U.S. Embassy in Tehran and captured 90 hostages, 52 of whom were held for 444 days

1956: Soviet troops moved in to crush an uprising in Hungary

1960: Chimpanzees in Tanzania were observed to create tools, the first non-human animals ever seen to do this

2001: The movie version of Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone had its world premiere in London

2017: Saudi Arabia's Crown Prince Mohammad bin Salman consolidated power by arresting over 40 princes and ministers for corruption