

Top eight players battle for ATP Finals title

Rafael Nadal, 33, could become the oldest player to top the year-end rankings with victory at the ATP Finals. The 19-time Grand Slam champion has yet to win the season-ending showpiece and faces a tough challenge to hold off Novak Djokovic and other top rivals in London

Djokovic

ATP FINALS: November 10-17

2019 record

Win

Loss

Round robin format: Top two players in each group advance to semi-finals

GROUP A: Andre Agassi

	Rafael Nadal	51	6
	Daniil Medvedev	59	18
	Stephanos Tsitsipas	50	24
	Alexander Zverev	42	23

Titles won
 Rome, Roland Garros, Montreal, U.S. Open
 Sofia, Cincinnati, St. Petersburg, Shanghai
 Marseille, Estoril
 Geneva

GROUP B: Bjorn Borg

	Novak Djokovic	53	9
	Roger Federer	51	8
	Dominic Thiem	46	17
	Matteo Berrettini	42	21

Aus. Open, Madrid, Wimbledon, Tokyo, Paris
 Dubai, Miami, Halle, Basel
 I. Wells, Barcelona, Kitzbuhel, Beijing, Vienna
 Budapest, Stuttgart

RECENT WINNERS: Djokovic aiming to win sixth ATP Finals title, equalling record of Roger Federer

2018	Alexander Zverev GER	bt	Novak Djokovic SRB	6-4, 6-3
2017	Grigor Dimitrov BUL		David Goffin BEL	7-5, 4-6, 6-3
2016	Andy Murray GBR		Novak Djokovic SRB	6-3, 6-4
2015	Novak Djokovic SRB		Roger Federer SUI	6-3, 6-4