

Where do UK parties stand on Brexit?

EXIT WITH DEAL

Boris Johnson
Conservative Party

Wants to implement divorce deal he agreed with EU as soon as possible, then negotiate long-term free-trade agreement with bloc from next year

SECOND REFERENDUM

Jeremy Corbyn
Labour Party

Wants to renegotiate Johnson deal so that UK remains in EU customs union and retains "close" single market relationship. Plan would be put to another public vote

CANCEL BREXIT

Jo Swinson
Liberal Democrat Party

Promises to cancel Brexit altogether if party wins power at election. If party does not win majority it will support second referendum

ANTI-BREXIT

SNP
Scottish National Party

Wants UK to remain in EU and supports another referendum. Ultimate goal is for independent Scotland with full membership of EU

CLEAN BREAK BREXIT

Nigel Farage
Brexit Party

Wants UK to leave EU without deal. Offers Conservatives electoral pact to avoid splitting Leave vote if Johnson will change track to back "clean break"
