

Venice hit by worst flooding in 50 years

Venice has declared a state of emergency after the city was hit by the highest tide in over 50 years

St Mark's Square:
Low-lying area
is among worst hit locations

St Mark's Basilica Flooded for only sixth time in 1,200 years

