

Trump to expand travel ban

The White House plans to add seven countries to President Trump's long-disputed travel ban, introduced in 2017, which created an uproar for targeting mainly Muslim-majority nations

COUNTRIES AFFECTED

- Included in current travel ban
- Removed from original list
- Under consideration for new restrictions
- Removed from original list but under consideration again

BELARUS SYRIA IRAN KYRGYZSTAN

U.S.

LIBYA

CHAD

NIGERIA

IRAQ

NORTH KOREA

YEMEN SOMALIA

VENEZUELA

SUDAN

ERITREA

TANZANIA

MYANMAR

REFUGEES ENTERING U.S. BY RELIGIOUS AFFILIATION (000s)

More Christians than Muslims have entered U.S. as refugees since fiscal year 2017*

*Fiscal years end Sep 30 of years shown

†Includes Hindus, Buddhists, Jews and other religions

Picture: Getty Images

Source: U.S. State Department's Refugee Processing Center via Pew Research Center © GRAPHIC NEWS