

Today in History

February 14, 2010

▲ Alexandre Bilodeau won Canada's first ever Olympic gold medal on home soil, in the men's freestyle skiing moguls at the Vancouver Olympics

1920: The League of Women Voters was founded in the U.S. Six months later women won the right to vote

1945: The German city of Dresden was devastated by Allied bombing

1995: The governments of Peru and Ecuador both claimed victory in a long-standing border dispute

2005: YouTube, a website in which videos could be freely uploaded, shared, and viewed, was established by three former PayPal employees