

Harvests threatened by locust swarms

Swarms of voracious locusts are rampaging through large parts of East Africa, the Middle East and southwestern Asia, devastating cropland and threatening the livelihoods of millions of people

National emergency declared

● Swarm: Each can contain billions of locusts

PAKISTAN
Worst locust plague in 27 years

IRAN

SAUDI ARABIA

INDIA

SUDAN

ERITREA

DJIBOUTI

YEMEN

OMAN

ETHIOPIA

SOUTH SUDAN

UGANDA

SOMALIA

KENYA

Uganda and South Sudan also at risk

Worst invasion for 70 years in Kenya, worst for 25 years in Ethiopia and Somalia

One locust can consume its own weight in food each day

500km
310 miles

