

Today in History

March 1, 1940

▲ Vivien Leigh won an Oscar as Best Actress for her role as Scarlett O'Hara in Gone With The Wind, one of the most popular films of all time

1810: Sweden became the first country to appoint an ombudsman to safeguard the rights of citizens

1810: Polish composer Frederic Chopin was born

1950: Chiang Kai-shek resumed the presidency of the Nationalist Chinese government

1995: Yahoo! Inc., the U.S. internet corporation known for its web portal and search engine Yahoo Search, was incorporated