

Australian animals in urgent need

Australia has identified 113 animal species which need “urgent help” after their populations and habitats were devastated by recent bushfires

Invertebrates

5

Crayfish

22

Birds
13

Fish
17

Reptiles
20

Frogs
17

Mammals
19

Kangaroo Island dunnart Endemic to island – 95% of its range lost to bushfires
in January

◀ Glossy black-cockatoo
Kangaroo Island
subspecies has lost much of its feeding
habitat

Northern
corroboree
frog: At imminent risk of extinction ▼

▶ Parma
wallaby
Not previously listed as threatened

▶ Blue Mountains
water skink

