

Countdown to Democratic nomination

A series of primaries and caucuses in every U.S. state and territory narrow the field of Democrats running for president until just one gains enough delegates to clinch the nomination in July

TOTAL DELEGATES: 3,979

REQUIRED TO WIN: 1,990

Segment size by number of delegates

If front-runner has fewer than 50% delegates, convention holds second ballot where 771 "superdelegates" also vote. Simple majority of all 4,750 delegates needed to secure nomination

Plus American Samoa and Democrats Abroad*