

Today in History

March 18, 1965

▲ Soviet cosmonaut Alexey Leonov became the first human to walk in space, making a 12-minute tethered spacewalk during the Voskhod 2 mission

1850: The American Express Company was founded in Buffalo, New York

1902: Italian tenor Enrico Caruso made the first good quality recording

1990: Christian Democrats won a landslide victory in East Germany's first democratic elections

1995: King Juan Carlos's elder daughter Elena married Jaime de Marichalar in Spain's first royal wedding for 89 years