

Guide to Super Tuesday 2020

The quest for a Democratic presidential nominee goes national when 16 states, territories or groups vote for their preferred candidate in primaries or caucuses. A third of all the delegates available in the entire primary season are up for grabs

Super Tuesday

14 states and Democrats Abroad hold primaries, American Samoa holds caucus

States which have already voted

Upcoming primary or caucus vote

0 Delegates for grabs

RESULTS OF EARLY PRIMARIES*

NEVADA

WINNER

Bernie Sanders	24
Joe Biden	9
Pete Buttigieg	3
Elizabeth Warren	0
Amy Klobuchar	0

IOWA

WINNER

Buttigieg†	13
Sanders	12
Warren	8
Biden	6
Klobuchar	1

SOUTH CAROLINA

WINNER

Biden	35
Sanders	13
Tom Steyer	0
Buttigieg	0
Warren	0

NEW HAMPSHIRE

WINNER

Sanders	9
Buttigieg	9
Klobuchar	6
Warren	0
Biden	0

500km
310 miles

CALIFORNIA
415

California, voting earlier than previously, and Texas take part on Super Tuesday. Two most populous states both have large Hispanic populations

MN
75

UT
29

CO
67

OK
37

AR
31

TN
64

AL
52

TEXAS
228

VT
16

ME
24

MA
91

VA
99

NC
110

Democrats Abroad
13

American Samoa
6

20km
12 miles

TOTAL NUMBER OF PLEDGED DELEGATES

1,357

3,979

Around 34% of all delegates allocated during primary season at stake on Super Tuesday

1,991 Number of delegates candidate must secure to win nomination at National Convention

*Michael Bloomberg did not take part in early primaries. †Buttigieg ended presidential bid on Mar 1

© GRAPHIC NEWS