

Today in History

March 28, 1920

▲ Silent screen stars Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks got married after both divorced their former spouses, a potentially career-ending move at the time

1800: The Irish parliament passed the Act of Union with Great Britain

1930: Constantinople, capital of the late Roman, Byzantine and Ottoman empires, was renamed Istanbul

2000: NASA reported that the loss of the Mars Polar Lander was due to a faulty sensor on the landing legs

2010: Thai Prime Minister Abhisit Vejjajiva met with anti-government “Red Shirts” to try to end the political crisis in the country