

Trump halts travel from Europe to U.S.

President Donald Trump has banned citizens of 26 European countries from entering the U.S. for 30 days in a bid to halt the spread of the coronavirus

RESTRICTIONS (in place from March 13 to April 13)

- Apply to foreign nationals who have been in any of 26 Schengen border-free countries in 14 days before their planned arrival in U.S. UK and Ireland are exempt

- Do not apply to U.S. citizens, green card holders or families of U.S. citizens
- Travel ban does not apply to European trade or goods