

World culture falls victim to pandemic

As the coronavirus enforces sweeping changes to everyday life, iconic venues are closed and popular events have been cancelled or postponed

SELECTION OF EVENTS LOST TO CORONAVIRUS

Correct as of Mar 26, 17:00GMT

Key

- Event cancelled
- Event postponed
- Venue closed

Feb 28	Disneyland Tokyo
Mar 1	Louvre Museum, Paris
Mar 4	Film: No Time To Die
Mar 5	Geneva Motor Show
Mar 9	All museums, heritage sites, Italy
Mar 10	London Book Fair, UK
Mar 11	Broadway theatres, New York Prado Museum, Madrid
Mar 12	Film: Fast and Furious 9 Universal Studios, U.S. Disney theme parks, U.S. Disneyland Paris New York museums, U.S. Van Gogh Museum, Amsterdam
Mar 13	South by Southwest Festival, U.S. Eiffel Tower, Paris
Mar 14	Golden Raspberry Awards, U.S.

BOND DELAYED

■ Release of new James Bond film, No Time To Die, put back to November

Mar 16	Netflix Originals production West End theatres, London Statue of Liberty, New York
Mar 17	Sydney Opera House
Mar 18	Film: Minions – The Rise of Gru
Mar 19	National Gallery, London All Cirque du Soleil shows
Apr 5	Olivier Awards, UK Taj Mahal, India
Apr 10	Coachella Festival, California
Apr 19	Beijing International Film Festival
May 4	Met Gala, New York
May 12	Cannes Film Festival
May 16	Eurovision Song Contest, Neth.
May 21	Ivor Novello Awards, London
May 23	Venice Architecture Biennale
Jun 9	Electronic Entertainment Expo, U.S.

Jun 11	Bonnaroo Festival, U.S.
Jun 17	Edinburgh Int'l Film Festival, UK
Jun 18	Art Basel, Switzerland
Jun 24	Glastonbury Festival, UK
Jul 24	Olympic-related events, Tokyo

GLASTONBURY SILENCED

■ Iconic music and arts festival culled, derailing 50th anniversary plans

NO TIME TO DIE
ONLY IN CINEMA

