

Today in History

April 24, 1967

▲ Cosmonaut Vladimir Komarov was killed when his Soyuz 1 spacecraft crashed on its return to Earth. He was the first person to die during a space mission

1965: The government of Indonesia formally took control of all foreign companies in the country

1970: Dong Fang Hong I, China's first satellite, was launched into orbit

1995: Bosnian Serb leader Radovan Karadzic and military commander Ratko Mladic were named as war crimes suspects at The Hague

2005: President Hugo Chavez of Venezuela announced he was severing all military ties with the U.S.