

Today in History

May 02, 1670

▲ The Hudson's Bay Company was chartered by the English crown and given a monopoly of the trade into Hudson Bay in present-day Canada

1965: Early Bird, the first commercial communications satellite, began operation

2000: A computer worm disguised as an email message with the subject ILOVEYOU spread worldwide

2010: The EU and IMF agreed a bailout package for Greece to end its sovereign debt crisis

2015: U.S. boxer Floyd Mayweather beat the Philippines' Manny Pacquiao in a match that earned over $410 million from pay-per-view