

Trump cuts WHO funding over coronavirus

President Donald Trump said he was cutting off U.S. payments to the World Health Organisation, accusing it of failing to do enough to stop the spread of coronavirus disease (Covid-19)

Trump said funding would be on hold for 60-90 days while U.S. reviews WHO actions to stop virus. He has also complained that other countries give substantially less to WHO than U.S., singling out China

FUNDING TO WHO (2019)
United States: $452m

China
$42m

TOP 10 CONTRIBUTORS TO WHO (over two-year 2018-19 period, $ millions)

Assessed contributions

Voluntary contributions

TOTAL CONTRIBUTIONS TO WHO (over two-year 2018-19 period)
United States: 15%

*Global Alliance for Vaccines and Immunisation

†UN Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs