

FIFA proposes extra substitutions

FIFA is proposing to allow teams to make up to five substitutions per match when play resumes. The plan aims to protect players from injury and fatigue amid fixture congestion generated by the coronavirus pandemic

FIFA PROPOSAL

Competitions to permit teams to use up to 5 substitutions per match

Substitutions take place within maximum of 3 slots, as well as at half-time

Additional 6th substitute during extra-time periods to remain

Includes all domestic and national matches to end of December 2021

Subject to approval by International Football Association Board, with implementation at discretion of competition organisers

May 25: Deadline for European leagues to tell UEFA whether they want to complete or cancel seasons

UEFA

PROJECT RESTART*

Bundesliga

*Aiming to restart season May 9

Serie A

*Set to resume team training May 18

Premier League

*Restart behind closed doors June 8

La Liga

*Aiming to restart by June 28

Ligue 1

Season cancelled

Eredivisie

Season cancelled

*UEFA aiming to host Champions League final August 29