

Today in History

June 01, 1215

▲ The city of Zhongdu (now Beijing), ruled by the Jurchen Emperor Xuanzong of Jin, was captured by the Mongols under Genghis Khan

1990: U.S. President George HW Bush and Soviet President Mikhail Gorbachev agreed to cease production of chemical weapons

1995: Woodpecker damage delayed the launch of the space shuttle

2005: Dutch voters rejected the EU's draft constitution in the Netherlands' first referendum for over 200 years

2018: Pedro Sanchez of the Socialist Workers' Party was sworn in as prime minister of Spain