

Today in History

June 16, 1880

▲ The Salvation Army's distinctive bonnet was first seen at the silver wedding anniversary celebration of co-founders William and Catherine Booth in London

2005: EU leaders abandoned their initial deadline for ratification of a constitution after France and the Netherlands rejected a draft version

2005: Donald Tsang was declared the new chief executive of Hong Kong

2005: Indonesia confirmed its first human case of avian flu in a poultry worker from the island of Sulawesi

2010: The BP well in the Gulf of Mexico was reported to be leaking 60,000 barrels of oil a day