

F1 revving engines for return to starting grid

The 2020 Formula One World Championship will start in Austria, the first of eight races in Europe. The FIA is aiming to confirm additional races and plans to complete up to 18 rounds of the calendar as the sport recovers from the coronavirus pandemic

European schedule

- 01 Jul 5: Austria
Red Bull Ring
- 02 Jul 12: Styrian GP
Red Bull Ring
- 03 Jul 19: Hungary
Hungaroring
- 04 Aug 2: Britain
Silverstone
- 05 Aug 9: 70th Anniversary GP
Silverstone
- 06 Aug 16: Spain
Barcelona
- 07 Aug 30: Belgium
Spa
- 08 Sep 6: Italy
Monza

All European races to run behind closed doors